Homestay High School Programmes in South Africa

English
Language
Homestays

We are able to offer you a real High School Immersion package in South Africa. You will attend a local school and stay with a South African English speaking family. Many of our families have children already attending your chosen school or live close by. At your school you will be looked after by a Buddy so you won't feel lost and they can help you make friends and find your feet.

You can attend from one month to 1 academic year. You will be expected to purchase the school uniform but nothing more. Your English Level should be of an acceptable level as you will be immersed in the full school curriculum and a good B2 English level is required.

You could be staying on the Western Cape close to Cape Point and Cape Town with the beautiful and historic world famous Boulders Beach close by, your Host Family is used to having students and will include you in all aspects of their daily life. After school activities are offered from debating to sports and students are expected to participate.

We have a dedicated Local Co-Ordinator who lives in the area and is available to deal with any welfare and housekeeping issues. She will meet you on arrival and be available during your stay so the student should never feel worried or alone.

A minimum English level of B2

We are very lucky to be working with many good quality schools such as Fish Hoek High School with its high academic record and wonderful after school activities. As you can imagine sports feature highly in the school and you will be invited to participate in these after school as well as team Building weekends away with your new friends. Our host families live around the areas of Clifton Hout Bay, Green Point and Rondebosch.

Most South African schools enjoy sports and they can be very competitive so if you enjoy Rugby or Cricket then you will feel right at home here. For those who are more academic than sporty, you will also enjoy the cultural side as they have vibrant Drama Groups as well as IT Departments and always a School Newspaper. Whats not to get involved in ...

You will be expected to wear the school uniform. That's " non negotiable!" The wearing of uniform is strictly enforced right down to the wearing of the correct shoes! We will get you a School Buddy when you arrive to show you around and help introduce you to the schedule. Be sure your host family will also play an active part.
